The entire city in all its magnificence, is transformed by the sparkle and spirit of Christmas past, a grand, old-fashioned celebration, complete with all the sights, sounds and smells you remember from wonderful Christmases long ago.

Come . . . rejoice with us. Thousands of poinsettias will greet you in the colors of the season when we see the Opryland Hotel. Two acres of nostalgia wait in the Conservatory. The days and nights brim with wondrous holiday festivities. We will be staying three nights at the fabulous Opryland Hotel, which will be the highlight of our trip. Tonight we will enjoy the fabulous included Christmas dinner party starring the incomparable Lorrie Morgan.

DAY 2 > TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

The beauty and bounty of Christmas is everywhere during “A Country Christmas”, but no where more than the Christmas Craft, Art and Antique Fair. This is located at the Opryland Hotel. Here, in over 100 colorful booths and stalls, you can watch and learn as folk art professionals from ‘round the Southeast weave, quilt, carve, and spin their traditional crafts. And you can shop to your heart’s contents for handmade toys, baskets, clothing, stained glass, jewelry, edibles, and many other products created with skills passed down through many generations. This afternoon we have an included luncheon show on the Showboat General Jackson. This evening it’s The Grand Ole Opry. What began as a simple radio broadcast in 1925 is today a live-entertainment phenomenon. Dedicated to honoring country music’s rich history and dynamic present, the Grand Ole Opry showcases a mix of country legends and the contemporary chart-toppers who have followed in their footsteps. The Opry, an American icon and Nashville, Tennessee’s number one attraction, is world famous for creating one of a kind entertainment experiences for audiences of all ages
