Day 1 ➤ Tuesday, March 19 ➤ Home / Natchez, MS

Today we depart for an old-fashioned spring in the Antebellum Natchez, MS. Our travels will carry us through Alabama and on to Natchez, Mississippi. Upon arrival we will check into our hotel, our home for the next three nights. Tonight it's an included get-acquainted elegant dinner at David Garner's grand 1836 Choctaw Hall. David has relocated from Marlsgate in Arkansas to Natchez with his signature furnishings, porcelain, family silver and, of course, entertaining commentary!

Day 2 ➤ Wednesday, March 20 ➤ Historic Natchez

Following our included breakfast, our antebellum experience begins as we experience the world-famous Spring Pilgrimage at Natchez, MS, a city of timeless charm situated on 200-foot bluffs overlooking the mighty Mississippi River. All lovers of history and the romantic tradition of the Old South are invited to step into the past for an enchanted visit during Pilgrimage. Entertainment and celebrations enhance the most celebrated antebellum mansion tours in the country. Today we will visit three magnificent antebellum homes greeted by southern belles in long dresses and hoop skirts. The warm, friendly people of Natchez, many of whom are direct descendants of the original owners of the mansions, will be a pleasure to meet. Tonight we will have an included traditional plantation dinner at the Castle at Dunleith, one of America's largest antebellum homes. After dinner, we will be entertained by a stirring performance of Gospel Music. It will be one of our trip highlights

Day 3 ➤ Thursday, March 21 ➤ Natchez Touring/ Little Women

This morning, after another included breakfast, we'll visit Stanton Hall and Rosalie, two more enchanting homes, with our local guide.

Tonight, it's another included dinner, followed by the fabulous Broadway-style Musical, Little Women, at the Natchez Little Theatre. Based on Louisa May Alcott's novel, Little Women The Musical follows the adventures of sisters Jo, Meg, Beth, and Amy March. Jo is trying to sell her stories for publication, but the publishers are not interested. With the advice and help of her friend, Professor Bhaer, Jo weaves the story of herself, her sisters and their experience growing up in Civil War America.

Day 4 ➤ Friday, March 22 ➤ Natchez/ Home

Today, after another included breakfast, we say good-bye to Natchez and head home with an included farewell luncheon along the way. We will arrive home this evening with many fond memories of wonderful Antebellum Natchez.

Cancellation Policy: A cancellation fee of $100.00 will apply once deposit has been made. Cancellations 45 days or less prior to departure are subject to additional cancellation fees, based on charges passed on to us by our vendors. NO REFUNDS once the trip has started. Insurance waiver is available, at a cost of $ 80 per person.
